ULTIMATE QUESTION SURVEY

In September, we introduced our new and exciting partnership with the Institute for School and Parish Development (ISPD) as we enter into a strategic planning process. The focus of this process will be built around the theme of personally inviting and engaging people every step of the way. In these beginning steps, we invite you to share your thoughts as you complete this quick survey. The Ultimate Question survey should only take a few minutes and will allow us to better understand how we can improve what we offer. Thank you for assisting us in this strategic planning process.

Happy Halloween October 31, 2023
