DISCIPLESHIP RESOURCE FOR PARENTS

FIVE TIPS TO HELP YOU AS A PARENT

1. Be a disciple.

Children want well-reasoned answers to the questions that are on their heart. Know what you believe and why so that you can have growing and honest conversations with your children. Keep growing, learning, and sharing your faith with your children. Do not let the faith be like a puzzle piece in your life that could be plucked out and tossed aside. The faith should be so interwoven into your life that if you tried to remove it, you wouldn't even know where to start, and if you succeeded in removing it, the whole masterpiece would be destroyed. Growing in your faith as a family happens at the parish, but it happens first in your home!

2. Don't be afraid to talk about Jesus and share your story of faith.

Naturally talk about Jesus and what is going on in your own life. Share how important your faith is to you and how God is working in your life. This will help your children to see how natural and normal it is to be a person of faith. Children have to see you practicing their faith for it to become real. Let them catch you praying. Do you know that you have a story of faith? Each one of us does. Sit down and think about what your story of faith is or what pieces are significant that you would like to share with your children.

3. Weave faith into the home.

Create a space for prayer in your home. Set aside a place for the family Bible and read from it. Display your favorite statues of Jesus, Mary and the Saints pictures, and medals. Celebrate the feast days of patron saints that are important to your family. Celebrate Baptismal Days. These can't just exist at the church; they need to be in the home.

4. Do what a disciple does.

Be rooted in the simple disciplines of a disciple such as daily prayer, going to Mass at least once a week, frequenting the Sacrament of Reconciliation, sharing your faith with others, serving others, etc.

5. Pray for, with and over your children.

Do not be afraid to pray with your children out loud, for example, as they leave the house or go on a car journey. Pray over your children, for example, make the sign of the cross over them. Pray for your children constantly. Set aside regular time for prayer, help them read Scripture, and ask them what they are hearing as God speaks to them.
